

PROPOSAL SUBMITTED BY THE BULGARIAN GOVERNMENT AND ACCEPTED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS, WITH REGARD TO THE PROTECTION OF GREEK MINORITIES IN BULGARIA
(SIGNED AT GENEVA, SEPTEMBER 29, 1924)

The Bulgarian Government, being desirous of ensuring equitable treatment to persons belonging to the Greek minority in Bulgaria, in accordance with the clauses dealing with the protection of minorities in the Treaty of Neuilly-sur-Seine of November 27, 1919, submits the following proposal to the League of Nations.

The Council of the League of Nations, at its meeting of September 29, 1924, after having noted the proposal of the Bulgarian Government, has decided to accept it.

I.

Colonel A. C. CORFE and Major Marcel DE ROOVER, appointed by the League of Nations as members of the Greco-Bulgarian Mixed Emigration Commission, will undertake, as special representatives of the League of Nations, to assist the Bulgarian Government in its efforts to achieve the object mentioned above, during the term of their appointment to the Commission.

II.

For this purpose Colonel Corfe and Major de Roover will act as an advisory body for Greek minority questions in Bulgaria. They will be entitled to give advice to the Bulgarian Government as to the rapid execution of the provisions of the Treaty of Neuilly-sur-Seine relating to the protection of minorities. For this purpose, they will undertake an enquiry on the spot into the needs of persons belonging to the minorities, especially in the matter of education and public worship, and they will jointly submit to the said Government reports on the measures to be taken.

They will be at liberty to collect any information which may seem to them desirable or helpful in their work. The representative of the Bulgarian Government on the Mixed Emigration Commission will be bound to assist them in their work by all the means at his disposal and will receive instructions and full powers for this purpose from his Government.

III.

Colonel Corfe and Major de Roover will also be entitled to receive individual or collective petitions from persons belonging to the minority in question who consider that the rights accorded to them under the Treaty have been infringed. These petitions must be directed towards the protection of the minorities in conformity with the Treaty and must not be aimed at the sovereignty of the State. The petitions must come from a well-known and established source and must not be written in violent language.

After examination of each petition, Colonel Corfe and Major de Roover will give their joint opinion as to the manner in which the matter can be settled, in accordance with the stipulations of the Treaty and taking into consideration the methods of recourse, whether judicial or administrative, open to the petitioners in Bulgaria.

This opinion will be forwarded to the member of the Mixed Commission representing the Bulgarian Government, and he will endeavour to settle the matter on the spot - for which purpose he will receive instructions and full powers from his Government. If he cannot settle the matter on the spot, he will send the opinion to his Government, which will inform Colonel Corfe and Major de Roover as quickly as possible of its decision thereon.

This procedure will not in any way affect the procedure established by the Council of the League of Nations with regard to minority petitions.

IV.

Colonel Corfe and Major de Roover will be required to submit to the Secretary-General of the League, under whose guarantee the stipulations of the Minority Treaties are placed, a detailed report every six months on their work in connection with the present scheme.

Before the expiration of the term of office of Colonel Corfe and Major de Roover on the Greco-Bulgarian Mixed Emigration Commission, the Bulgarian Government will come to an agreement with the League of Nations as to the measures to be taken to ensure the continued protection of the Greek minority in Bulgaria in accordance with the spirit of the present scheme.

The stipulations of the present scheme will come into force as from to-day.

In witness whereof, the present Instrument has been signed.
