Article 4

Natural and manufactured products exported from the territory of one of the Contracting Parties into the territory of the other Contracting Party shall not be liable to any duties, taxes or similar charges other or higher, or to regulations other or formalities more burdensome, than those imposed on similar natural and manufactured products of any third State.

Similarly, natural and manufactured products of one Contracting Party shall not be liable, on exportation to the territory of the other Contracting Party, to any duties, taxes or similar charges other or higher, or to regulations other or formalities more burdensome, than those imposed on similar natural and manufactured products on exportation to the territory of any third State.

Neither of the Contracting Parties shall impose on imports from or exports to the territory of the other Contracting Party any restrictions or prohibitions which are not applicable to all other States.

The Contracting Parties nevertheless reserve the right to impose, for reasons of national security, the maintenance of public order, public health, the protection of animal and plant life or the preservation of works of art and historical and archaeological treasures, prohibitions or restrictions on importation or exportation, where such prohibitions or restrictions are applied in like circumstances to any third State.

Tonnage certificates and other ship's papers carried by the vessel and issued by the competent authorities of one of the Contracting Parties shall be recognized by the authorities of the other Contracting Party.

In accordance with this provision, any vessel of either Contracting Party carrying a valid tonnage certificate shall be exempt from re-measurement in the ports of the other Party, and the net capacity of the vessel entered in the certificate shall be taken as the basis for calculating harbour dues.

Article 12

Natural and manufactured products of either Contracting Party in transit through the territory of the other Contracting Party to the territory of a third State shall not be liable to dues, taxes or other charges.
